

Endangered Species

Alexandria Zoo is home to several endangered and critically endangered species. Choose any endangered animal in the Zoo. Observe and study the animal, and answer the following questions.

Common name of animal _____

Scientific name of animal _____

Describe in detail what this animal looks like and what its habitat consists of.

What country does this animal come from? _____

What does this animal eat? _____

Why is this animal endangered? _____

What do you think could be done to save this animal from extinction?

On the back of this paper, draw a picture of this animal and its habitat.